

Gathering Information on Interesting Organizations and Careers

1/2

Collect the names of interesting companies and occupations in one list (page 2), and think what the most interesting ones are, and how you can require more information on them. At this stage it is good to collect all the information that possibly could suit your personal career path.

Research the career opportunities.

Gathering Information on Interesting Organizations and Careers

2/2

	Occupation/ career area	Occupation/ career area	Occupation/ career area	Occupation/ career area	Occupation/ career area	Occupation/ career area
Interesting employers
Interesting career area
What skills/abilities are utilized? What type of knowledge required?
What educational background might be helpful?
Where can I find more information?
Where can I find more information?
Referral to other information opportunities:
My skills related to this position?
I am interested in this because...						